Notice to Defendant(s)

Tennessee law provides a four thousand dollar ($4,000.00) personal property exemption from execution or seizure to satisfy a judgment. If a judgment should be entered against you in this action and you wish to claim property as exempt, you must file a written list, under oath, of the items you wish to claim as exempt with the clerk of the court. The list may be filed at any time and may be changed by you thereafter as necessary; however, unless it is filed before the judgment becomes final, it will not be effective as to any execution or garnishment issued prior to the filing of this list. Certain items are automatically exempt by law and do not need to be listed; these included items of necessary wearing apparel (clothing) for yourself and your family and trunks or other receptacles necessary to contain such apparel, family portraits, the family Bible, and school books. Should any of these items be seized you would have the right to recover them. If you do not understand your exemption right or how to exercise it, you may wish to seek the counsel of a lawyer.

COMPLAINT

FACTS

Comes the plaintiff by her counsel and shows the following facts as the basis for the relief hereinafter requested.

Lloyd Ray Sutphin, a resident of Henagar, Alabama, purchased a life insurance policy with a death benefit of $320,000 from New York Life in 2011. His daughter was the named beneficiary. He married plaintiff in October, 2012. He changed beneficiaries on his life insurance on December 12, 2012 naming his daughter and his wife as joint beneficiaries.

Sutphin worked at Engineered Mechanical Systems in Chattanooga, Tennessee. He purchased his policy of insurance from the New York Life Agent, William Johnson, in Chattanooga. His life insurance premiums were deducted from his paycheck by his employer in Chattanooga.

Sutphin and plaintiff were divorced February 29, 2016. Six months later they reunited sans marriage. Stuphin then purchased an additional life insurance policy through his employer naming plaintiff as beneficiary.

Lloyd Ray Sutphin departed this life in an ATV accident on December 22, 2016. New York Life Insurance Company has declined payment due to Alabama Law, i.e., Sec. 30-4-17 Code of Alabama.

Alabama Law does not apply. The place of the contract was Tennessee sold by a Tennessee representative of the defendant. The undisputed facts involved in this matter are as follows:

- a. The place of negotiating the contract – Tennessee

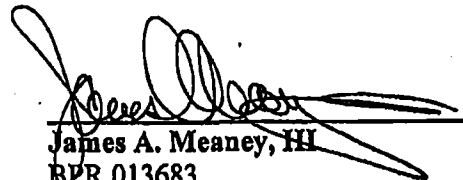

- b. The place of performance of the contract – Tennessee
- c. Business location of the parties – Tennessee
- d. Intent of the parties (New policy for wife) – Tennessee
- e. Domicile of the plaintiff – Alabama

There is nothing in this transaction involving Alabama other than the domicile of the parties. The more significant relationship to the transaction is with the State of Tennessee. Under Tennessee Law, Tenn. Code Ann. Sec 56-7-102 the plaintiff is entitled to recover under the policy.

COUNT ONE

1. On December 12, 2012, Policyholder Loyd R. Sutphin, Jr. added his wife, Kimberly Blalock Sutphin as a beneficiary with his daughter on New York Life Insurance Company policy number 39 648 864.
2. Sutphin had previously purchased the policy of insurance from New York Life Insurance Company through its local Chattanooga Agent, William Johnson. The policy had been solicited through Sutphin's employer Engineered Mechanical Systems, Inc. of Chattanooga, Tennessee. Premiums were deducted from his wages and paid directly to New York Life Insurance Company.
3. The policy holder, Loyd R. Sutphin was killed accidentally on December 22, 2016. Appropriate claim for policy benefits were made by the plaintiff and refused by defendant.
4. As beneficiary, plaintiff is entitled to the proceeds of the policy of insurance.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff claims of the defendant $160,000.00, interest and costs.
